Kofi Cafés was born with a clear purpose: to prove that good coffee doesn't need sugar. Based in Cuiabá (MT), the company brings to the market a special 100% Arabica coffee, grown at Sítio Ouro Verde, in the Serra da Mantiqueira (MG), at over 1,000 meters of altitude.

Roasting is done daily and on demand, connecting origin to customer with freshness, traceability, and consistent quality. Kofi already serves consumers throughout Brazil through e-commerce, with an average rating of 4.8 stars. Now it is expanding its B2B operations, offering specialty single-origin coffee to cafes, specialty stores, hotels, and distributors.
