PRODUCTS

Ekobé, a term originating from the ancient Tupi-Guarani dialect that refers to the idea of "life that comes from the earth," was created with the purpose of promoting well-being through conscious choices focused on daily health.

We offer a complete portfolio of supplements, including capsules, gummies, powders, multivitamins, and nutraceuticals in general, as well as a line of cosmetics developed to meet different needs. Our products are manufactured to rigorous quality standards, utilizing certified outsourcing processes and seals that ensure safety, traceability, and excellence. At Ekobé, we believe in the positive impact that health can have on people's lives. Our work is guided by solid values, innovation, and a genuine commitment to well-being. We stand out as the largest gummy producer in Latin America, consolidating our position as a benchmark in the segment.
