COMPANY

The plantation is nestled in the town of Nazareno, 970 meters above sea level on the edge of southern Minas Gerais, blessed with a mild climate and sparse winds. It's a "terroir" for coffee, facilitating the production of special beans that yield an exquisite brew brimming with hints of fruity and caramelized aromas and exceptional flavor.

The BONATER Cafés Especiais brand name is a registered trademark of INPI - National Institute of Industrial Property owned by Rural Producer Célio De Boucherville.
