

GOLK

AÇAÍ FROM

COMPANY

GOLK is a company specializing in freeze-dried powdered açai, whose DNA includes a commitment to sustainability. More than just offering a nutritious, high-quality product, we seek to have a positive impact on the environment.

Our purpose is simple and powerful: for every 5 kg of açai sold, a tree is planted. In this way, we contribute to the recovery of degraded areas, strengthen the ecosystem and encourage carbon sequestration, collaborating directly in the fight against climate change. With GOLK, every choice goes beyond consumption and is also a gesture of care for the planet and future generations.

Our Freeze-dried Açai Powder is a 100% natural product, with no preservatives or added sugars, which preserves all the nutritional properties and authentic flavor of the Amazon's most traditional fruit. Through freeze-drying technology, we guarantee maximum quality, keeping its nutrients, aroma and vibrant color intact.

This true Brazilian superfood is extremely versatile and can be used in various segments: from the preparation of functional foods, supplements and energy drinks, to formulations for the cosmetics market, highlighting the strength of Brazil's biodiversity.

In addition, each batch has complete traceability, ensuring transparency and trust. The result is a healthy, sustainable product with high added value, ready to win over demanding consumers anywhere in the world.

Choose Freeze-dried Açai Powder: Brazilian tradition, complete nutrition and endless possibilities in just one product.
