

JUICES AND PRESERVES
FROM FRUITS

COMPANY

The history of Doce Conquista is intimately linked to the history of its founders, Mrs. Marlucia and Maria Pereira Alves, sisters, rural producers, black and women from family agriculture who saw in the production of sweets an opportunity to add value to the product, increasing the family income, undertaking and collaborating with the reuse of guava.

Doce Conquista was born in 2006 in the district of Santa Terezinha municipality of Itaporã, in the region of the great Dourados-MS.

Doces Conquistas Agribusiness, which currently has in its portfolio several recipes that add value and enhance the guava's flavor, has already sold the product to several Brazilian states and to other countries as well.

+55 (67) 9 9616.8342
+55 (67) 9 9636.6445
marlucialves19@hotmail.com
mariare15@yahoo.com.br
@docesconquistagoiaba

PRODUCTS

NCM 207.99.10

Doce Conquista products are all made with its own raw material, since both the guava and the other ingredients are all produced on the company's farm. Moreover, all items are produced by women from family farms, in a handmade way, emphasizing the flavor of the guava and the family recipe, since everything started inspired by the recipe of homemade guava sweets from the mother of the founders, Marlucia and Maria. Currently Doce Conquista has in its portfolio the following products:

- Guava jelly with dulce de leche - 330g
- Pepper jelly - 330g
- Pineapple and pepper jelly - 330g
- Guava and pepper jelly - 330g
- Guava and Ginger Jelly - 330g
- Guava Paste Cascão - 500g
- Guava Paste Cascão - 35g
- Tamarind jelly - 330g
- Hibiscus Jelly - 330g
- Guava Jelly - 330g

DETAILS ON PRODUCTION CAPACITY, SEASONALITY AND OTHER CHARACTERISTICS:

Doce Conquista products are different because they do not use any additives or preservatives in the production of sweets, thus emphasizing the natural flavor of the fruit, besides having little sugar, offering consumers a much healthier product.

DOCE CONQUISTA
City: Itaporã
State: Mato Grosso do Sul
Brazil

