Pioneers in the segment in the state of Goiás Fábrica de Doces Nerópolis was born in September 1966 with Mr. Humberto Marques Brandão and his wife, Sra. Dulcinea Navas Marques. Together, they founded the sweets factory that took the town's name as its trademark: "Doces Nerópolis".

As demand increased, Doces Nerópolis expanded its facilities in 1987, building an industrial plant with an area of more than 3,500m². During this same period, the city of Nerópolis ceased to be known as the "Land of Garlic" and became known as the "Land of Sweets".
