

COMPANY

It all started with a dream. It was in the spring of 2005 that the company's founder dreamed up a different recipe. He mixed ingredients and molded a sweet that would be baked. When he woke up in the middle of the night, he felt that this dream would change his life. So, he immediately started making the recipe he had learned in such a special way. Right there, in his kitchen, with the help of his family, Dreams Coconut Cookie was born.

Today, the recipe is no longer prepared at home, but the company makes a point of maintaining the artisanal process, the high-quality ingredients and the care that give Dreams Coconut Cookie a delicious and unparalleled flavor.
