COMPANY

In 1890, Amuleto Silenciato arrived from Italy to the beautiful region of São Sebastião do Paraíso, Minas Gerais Brazil, where he built a long family tradition of growing coffee. It has been four generations since Amuleto Silenciato arrived in Brazil, and he would be happy to know that in 2021, his lands are still proudly cultivated for coffee by a group of brothers, cousins and uncles who are his direct descendants.

We have a network of farmers with whom we have built relationships for generations. We always work directly with our farmers and take pride in our doing business style; our family's reputation around the region would give any potential buyer the comfort of being working with farmers who respect and passionately love the art of growing coffee.

PRODUCTS

NCM 09.01.11.10

The coffee-rich region of São Sebastião de Paraíso is also known as the "Alta Mogiana Region", famous for its abundant productions of high-quality coffee beans. The region is more than 1,000 meters above sea level, and is home to a variety of Arabica coffee beans such as Yellow and Red Catuai, Bourbon, and Mundo Novo.

High quality raw Arabica coffee, from the varieties, yellow and Red Catuai, Bourbon and Mundo novo. We also work with coffee roasted in grain and ground.

DETAILS ON PRODUCTION CAPACITY, SEASONALITY AND OTHER CHARACTERISTICS:

We have a total capacity counting on all the production of the family members, producers of our network, of approximately 20,000 bags/year (60KG/bag)
