FREEZE-DRIED PRODUCTS

COMPANY

Located in Taquara/RS, Lyovibes emerged in 2019 with the purpose of providing flavor to everyday meals, adding even more practicality and functionality to the market.

We promote solutions in food, whether through the supply of our products as ingredients for other industries or ready-to-eat products, to facilitate the routine of people to feed at their own pace, avoiding waste and nourishing life.

In our product line, we do not add preservatives or chemical additives, using only natural and carefully selected ingredients, as well as a special touch of affection, positive energy and high spirits during the preparation.

PRODUCTS

Produced with 100% natural ingredients and no added sugars*, Lyovibes freeze-dried juices come ready to drink: just add the contents of the package in a glass, add 200ml of ice water, mix for 30 seconds and you are ready to drink!

Freeze-dried creams are the perfect option for those looking for practicality in the routine: just put the contents of the package in a container and add 250ml of boiling water, mixing for 30 seconds. You can also add other ingredients to the cream as you prefer.

In our freeze-dried seasonings line, the nutrients, taste and appearance of the products are preserved through a non-polluting and 100% natural process. Thus, it is possible to keep the quality of the freshly harvested food and always available, with a lot of practicality and flavor.

Produced from an artisanal and gourmet process, Lyovibes jellies have no preservatives or additives. Made with demerara sugar, they are 100% natural and can be consumed with breads, cakes, meats, cheeses, dairy, salads and as ingredients of other recipes.

Lyovibes appetizers, as well as other products, are produced from the artisanal and gourmet process, without the addition of preservatives and additives. Low in sodium, they are 100% natural and can be consumed with breads, sauces, salads, meats, cheeses and as ingredients of other recipes. Made with 100% extra virgin olive oil.

The Seasoned Salt Line is produced with ground (unrefined) sea salt and fresh herbs and seasonings. Without the addition of preservatives and additives, it was designed to provide even more flavor to meals.
