

CHICKEN PRODUCTS

COMPANY

The successful history of Avivar Alimentos, founded in 1999, was built from the dream of an enterprising family. Located in the interior of Minas Gerais, in Brazil's Southeast region, the brand that has become a national reference, has a mix that includes more than 130 products among frozen chicken cuts and processed foods.

Guided by innovation and supported by an efficient supply chain, Avivar distributes its products throughout the country and abroad, always bringing quality, flavor, and nutrition to its customers worldwide.

TOTAL CONTROL OF THE PRODUCTION CHAIN

Avivar Alimentos controls the entire verticalized system of the poultry production chain, composed of hatchery, farms, feed mill, and slaughterhouse, providing reliability and security to the company's entire production process.

In 2014, Avivar Alimentos obtained authorization from the Ministry of Agriculture and the Federal Inspection System (SIF 960) to export poultry meat "in natura" and industrialized products. With the opening of the international market, the company has expanded its business and meets the demand for food in several countries around the world.
